

PROF. DR. JACEK PURCHLA

Full professor of humanities and a full member of the Polish Academy of Arts and Sciences (PAU). Since 2015, he has been President of the Polish National Commission for UNESCO and since 2019 the Polish principal representative in the UNESCO Executive Board in Paris. Between 2016 and 2017 he was the President of the UNESCO World Heritage Committee. He heads the Department of Economic and Social History at the Cracow University of Economics, as well as the Institute of European Heritage at the International Cultural Centre, of which he is the founder and was its first director from its inception in 1991 until 2017. President of the Board of Jagiellonian University. Doctor honoris causa of the National University of Lviv Polytechnic.

His research focuses on urban development, social history and art history of the 19th and 20th centuries, as well as on theory and protection of cultural heritage. Author of over four hundred academic publications, including many books. A member of numerous organizations and associations, such as Comité international d'histoire de l'art (full member), Team for Poland's membership in the Intergovernmental Committee for the Protection of Cultural and Natural Heritage for the 2025-2029 term, expert of the European Commission in the European Heritage Label project. In 2000-2016 he chaired the Council for the Protection of Monuments at the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage. President of the Society of Friends of History and Monuments of Krakow and editor in chief of "Rocznik Krakowski". In 2018, he was elected as vice president of Europa Nostra.